

RETURN TO WORK SAFELY

Helping you return to work safely

As the COVID-19 pandemic eases, and businesses begin to formulate return to work plans, it will be a priority to ensure the safety of your workplace for your employees and customers.

To help support safe social distancing in the workplace, Mearns & Gill have teamed up with Service Graphics to provide a fully integrated service for branded social distancing signage and information boards.

From floor graphics, information boards, posters and digital screen graphics to modular screens, separation dividers and partitions, there are many opportunities to reinforce your organisation's 'safety first' culture, key messages and company branding.

Some examples of possible solutions for your business are shown on the attached document. All solutions can, however, be tailored to your individual requirements.
